

Orleans County Democratic Committee
October 4, 2017 Meeting Summary

The Orleans County Democratic Committee met on October 4th 2017.

Tonia Ettinger, who is running for the position of County Judge visited the committee. She members of her qualifications, her connection to Orleans County and her personal history. Her platform will include her desire to work in furthering the causes of children. She has also been endorsed by the Conservative Party. Yard signs are available for Al and Tonia.

Fred Miller is running unopposed to keep his seat on the County Legislature. He represents District 3. Al Capurso is running for an at-large seat on the County Legislature.

Eileen Aina, from the Board of Elections, reminded members of absentee ballots available at Board of Election Office, which can be picked up and returned the day before elections.

Jim Renfrew handed out report on the OCDC Forum held October 27th, 25 people present and 5 panelists to address "Immigration and the Economic Vitality of Orleans County". The next OCDC Forum to be held Wednesday, January 24th, topic Young Democrats. NYS Young Democrats are between the ages of 18 and 35 years. There is interest in forming an Orleans County chapter of Young Democrats.

Orleans Democrats Harvest Dinner, October 25th, 5 PM appetizers, 6PM dinner, speaker Tom DiNapoli NYS Comptroller $30 per ticket. At the QWL Building, Washington Street in Albion.

Two new members were welcomed to the committee from Barre and Murray.

Town of Gaines Democrats are having a meet and greet for candidates on October 14th at Watt Farms Country Market, 3121 Oak Orchard Road, Albion, NY 14411. Call Rick 507-9171 for more information.

Next meeting November 1st 2017, 7:00 PM HOAG LIBRARY