

Orleans County Democratic Committee September 13, 2017 - Meeting Highlights

Forum Report

On Wednesday, September 27, 7:00 PM, at Hoag Memorial Library in Albion we will be offering a panel of presenters addressing the topic "Immigration and the Economic Vitality of Orleans County". It is not a debate, simply an exchange of views on a very timely topic.

Hands for Hope

Members of the Orleans Democratic Committee have been assisting this community ministry by collecting clothing, coats, toiletries.

Wine Pairing Meet & Greet for Democratic Candidate Al Capurso on September 16th, 4 to 6 PM at Pullman Church in Albion.

Farm to Table on October 28th at QWL Building, Albion starting with appetizers 5 PM, dinner at 6PM. Guest Speaker Thomas DiNapoli, New York State Comptroller, tickets are $30.00.

Tonia Ettinger, an attorney with the Legal Aid Society was endorsed as a candidate for the position of Orleans County Court Judge. She has also been endorsed by the Conservative Party. There is an opportunity for the public to meet her on Sunday, September 24, 3-6 PM, at the Hoag Library.

Carts for Hoag Library have been ordered, a donation from Orleans County Democratic Committee.

Next Meeting - The Orleans County Democratic Committee next meets on Wednesday, October 4, 7 PM, at the Hoag Memorial Library in Albion.